

AFWA Scholarship Application
Academic Year 2026-2027

AFWA Denver scholarships are funded by contributions from the community and chapter members.

AFWA Denver Chapter Scholarship Eligibility -

The Denver Chapter of AFWA award several scholarships each Fall. (Application deadline June 30th) As our organization grows, so does our ability to offer financial assistance to outstanding accounting/finance students. This coming school year we will offer individual scholarships up to $10,000.00 to accounting/finance students in Colorado. To be eligible for the Denver chapter's award, the applicant must: have a GPA of at least 3.0 excluding remedial classes, have successfully completed Intermediate Accounting I or equivalent Finance course, completed 60 semester or 90 quarter hours with a declared major in Accounting or Finance, and demonstrate financial need. In addition, to be considered for the scholarship, the following documents must be included: Official transcripts from each post-secondary school attended; Letters of recommendation from three different references; And a 50-200 word essay describing: your career goals; objectives; detailing how this scholarship will help you to reach those goals; and explain your financial need.

To support the cost of attending 3rd, 4th, 5th & 6th year towards a Bachelor's or Graduate Degree in Accounting or Finance.
